One of the underlying purposes of the LUPC hearings was the possibility of the development of innovative management systems within the withdrawals which could accommodate the needs and wishes of the peoples of Alaska and of the nation as a whole. Since that time the Department of Interior has distributed its proposals for classification of the (d) (2) lands, and the public has become more aware of Interiors intentions. Many people would like the opportunity to voice their opinions on the Department of Interiors controversial proposals at a public hearing. To facilitate this purpose, the Department of Interior, in all fairness, should hold public hearings on each of the specific proposals in the area to be affected, to obtain and consider public opinion in the overall environmental assessment. If this course of action is not taken, it can only be assumed that the Department of Interior is not...
