He s a professional hockey player. She s married to a successful real estate developer. But what looks like success feels hollow. The problem is that they re living other people s dreams. While Gordie endures a loveless marriage and dedicates himself to winning games for his Philadelphia team, he dares to imagine a less complicated future in his family s ancestral home in the islands of Scotland. Grace puts up with a life she never wanted, shelving her artistic ability to play the part of a merely decorative wife. When one day Grace and Gordie see each other at one of his games, both their lives are changed forever. Will Grace, unintentionally named for a notorious pirate queen, dredge up latent buccaneer skills in order to get to know this man she feels so strangely drawn to? Will Gordie, gifted with Second Sight, forgo duty for once to meet this woman he recognizes from a teenage vision? Only time-and a crazy weekend in the Poconos-will tell.
