The question receiving most consideration of educational engineers at present is that of the foundation and lower stories of the structure. This question is as to whether we should not build the lower part of it a story higher, thus expanding it for greater numbers, and make the high school stories three instead of four. This is not within the scope of the program set for our consideration, though it vitally affects the problem which we are to discuss and perhaps we may informally consider it before our session is over. Before we take up these items, I think we shall wish to direct Doctor Wheelock to send a greeting to Doctor...
