Stop This Madness

By Min Gloria P. Brown

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 72 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in. Min. Gloria Brown writes this book from her perspective as a Protestant minister, and expresses her concern for the direction in which our country is headed. She states in the Introduction to the book that . . . the issues addressed are, I believe, critically important for the future of this country for our children and their children. To my mind, the current state of political affairs has gone from ridiculous to totally absurd. The fact that each political party remains so steadfastly dogmatic concerning the party line doesn't make sense to me. Extremists from each party rule the day. Someone has defined insanity as doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results. Something needs to change. Stop this Madness!!!! Min. Brown states that the solution to this country's problems does not lie in new government programs. She believes that what this country really needs is a spiritual revival and a return to the Christian principles upon which the nation was founded. My name is Gloria P. Brown, and I relocated to my hometown of Riceboro in southeast Georgia eight years ago after...
