Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Indian Administration of Lord Canning: Re-Printed From the Bengal Hurkaru After an absence of more than six years, the present Governor General of India returns to his native land, to play it may be expected no undistinguished part on the field of European politics, though he can never expect, or even wish to be involved in affairs of such vast and painful importance as those which have engaged his attention in the East. If he cares for an immortality of remembrance his wish is sure to be realised. His name will survive when his acts have long been forgotten. Erostratus is not more indelibly associated with the destruction of the Temple of Diana, than Lord Canning will be with the massacre of Cawnpore, and the extinction of the House of Timor. We propose to touch upon the salient points of his career, and enter on the task with a desire to do him full justice. The writer in such a case must be like the photographer, and reproduce the faces of things as he finds them without reference to their beauty or deformity. Facts, like features will not bear to be distorted. History will claim to record no portion of his Lordship's Administration, prior to the outburst of the great Sepoy Revolt, the era at which our review commences. Lord Canning is not to be blamed for the fact of the Mutiny having occurred, nor for his inability to discern the signs of its near approach in the early months of 1857. The advisers upon whom he had been compelled to rely during the first year of his rule had no fears of...
