SCENE III. The Palatine hill. Midnight. The city visible below in the moonlight. Enter Silius alone; he pauses, and leans against the rampart. Silius. So Geta promises that he will join us; That gives our cause new strength. But, as he says, This should have been determined long ago. How have the days slipped by! Days? weeks and months, All spent in pleasure, utterly consumed, Which should have been devoted to the winning Of the whole court, --canvassing every man, --Making so sure that stepping on the throne Would scarcely have produced a jar. But then They were delicious days! O heaven, the scenes That we have known! But they have left us here With an uncertain fate. It is Valeria Who keeps our future doubtful, and our lives Forever in the balance; for her mind Is woman s mind in its entirety....
