The report closes with a very complete and carefully analyzed bibliography. Arithmetic is the last subject discussed in Part III. Professor Jessup s recommendations are not only based upon a careful review and consideration of all other relevant studies and investigations but also upon the return showing the practice in the content of arithmetic in 867 cities having a population of 4,000 or over and in 114 counties of the United States. The following topics are treated statistically from the data secured: (1) the elimination of topics; (2) increased emphasis on topics; (3) the recitation-time distribution; (4) the percentage of drill; (5) grade textbook introduction; (6) grade emphasis on topics. A definite standard for attainment in the fundamentals is proposed for each grade, and in conclusion a reduction in the time devoted to arithmetic is recommended. In Part IV, Professor W. C. Bagley describes three methods which have been employed under his guidance for determining the content in geography and history which it is most important to teach and reports tentatively the results derived from the application of each method. Use of the newspaper-magazine method developed suggestive data for both geography and history. The methods of determining minima by taking the judgments of specialists and by a comparison of school texts were employed with significant results in history. The...
