Excerpt: .are remounted by the cavalry regiments, those of the fortress artillery by the regiments of corps artillery. The horses put in their possession must be under 10 years of age. Each regiment of cavalry always has on hand six horses for this purpose. At the end of eight years the horses become the property of the officers having them in their possession. The cavalry officers, remounted free of cost, take chargers from among the troop horses. These horses should as a rule, barring accidental injuries or disability, remain five years in the hands of the holder. After five years the officer can ask to become the owner by the payment of three annuities, amounting in all to one-quarter of the value of the horse. After eight years the officer has a property right to the horse. The artillery officers are remounted in the same...
