A Dramatic Life: How to Journey with Elementary Thinking

By Kevin C McCrewell Sr

Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the new millennium, the definition of a single word has changed. A word which in its basic form, gives broad strokes to so much in its new role in our lives . DRAMA. The word drama is now the descriptive catch-all for events, not even catastrophic. Events which can alter the course of a moment, day or even change one's life. Throughout this book, you will see instances of drama that may seem to be the same as another already listed. But, that's how drama is, coming around again unless you stop it. Life has a concentric cyclic basis, having the ability to have events come back which you can predict by your choices, good or bad. This book is about taking the drama and eliminating how we got there, what it was that made circumstances gather into a storm of change. As we go, hopefully you will see how to break down events into elementary morsels. In your journey through life, there are ways to apply logic and ethics to place...
