

Glad Tidings of Struggle and Strife: A History of Protest Christmas Cards

By Llew Smith, Pam Smith, Ken Livingstone

Fonthill Media. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Glad Tidings of Struggle and Strife: A History of Protest Christmas Cards, Llew Smith, Pam Smith, Ken Livingstone, Protest Christmas Cards, highlighting political, industrial and social turmoil, have been produced since the mid nineteenth century. This book contains images from the collection of Llew and Pam Smith. They researched and collected such cards over a 40 year time-span. Llew Smith, who was formerly MP for Blaenau Gwent, together with his late wife Pam, has written an accompanying history of the struggles represented in the cards. The issues cover a 160 year time period - from the early days of the industrial revolution to the current coalition government and the Occupy movement. The Christmas card with the themes of peace, goodwill, justice and hope were seen as an appropriate medium for individuals and groups to project similar aspirations. The cards portray the words and deeds of the brave, who, in the face of injustice, refused to remain silent and accept that nothing could be done. As Martha Gelhorn wrote: 'An old and unending worldwide company, the men and women of conscience. Some are as famous as Tom Paine .some are unknown. There have always...
