Wool stocks at present in this country are characterized by large supplies of grade wools of a kind not normally coming into competition with the best grades., of domestic wools, and a comparatively small supply of choice wools. Furthermore, the prospective demand of manufacturers appears sufficient to absorb all supplies of good wool now in sight. There appears to be nothing in the situation to cause growers to be hasty in selling their wools. It is our understanding that any reforms to be brought about in wool marketing methods must be inaugurated and conducted by growers themselves, for they will benefit first and chiefly from such reforms. It is strongly...
