Congress must get tougher in its own investigations of what brought Americas financial system to this predicament. An equity washout of this magnitude does not happen by spontaneous combustion. It was willed to happen. Specific people in specific places set the pieces in place to allow this to proceed. Many of them have been handsomely rewarded. America needs to know who they were and are; I believe Congress should authorize a full independent investigation into the roots of this crisis and trace back the unstable period following the savings and loan crisis in the late 1980 s. The development of the inter-national mortgage securitization instrument itself deserves more attention. In effect, this became a clever and high-risk credit device with little transparency that acted like a bank. It created money or at least the illusion of it in a Ponzi-like scheme or manner and it did so without the normal regulatory restraint of...
