In the Canadian trade returns there are no records of coin or bullion being shipped between Canada and the Philippines during the years 1888-1897. b The Canadian trade reports do not specify the Philippine Islands, except in the case of certain items, but it is evident from the character of the imported merchandise that the commerce variously imports for consumption only. d Domestic exports only. No exports of foreign merchandise to the Philippines were recorded during 1888-1897. e In the Canadian trade returns for 1894 imports are recorded from the Spanish East Indies to the value of $707,320, and from Spanish possessions, all other (excluding the Spanish West Indies), to the value of $428,082, but from the character of the merchandise embraced, it is evident that the second item as well as the first should be credited to the Philippines. The total imports are therefore stated at $1,135,402. IMPORTS INTO CANADA FROM THE PHILIPPINES. Canada's imports from the Philippines during the last ten years consisted chiefly of sugar. Cigars were imported annually in small quantities; but no receipts of Manila hemp were recorded, except in the years 1893 and 1894. During the first half of the decade there were several importations of coffee, but none have been reported since 1892. The imports of other commodities were insignificant. Sugar.--Sugar constituted in value nearly 98 per cent of the total imports received from the islands. The largest annual...
